The CUNY Graduate Center Advanced Research Collaborative (ARC), the Center for the Humanities, and the Philosophy Program, together with Hunter College, present an interdisciplinary conference on:

#ME TOO and Epistemic Injustice

The conference will bring together scholars from a wide range of disciplines to explore the intersections of gender, race, and sexuality in the academic and public spheres. The event aims to foster a multidisciplinary conversation on the challenges and possibilities for change.

Speakers

- Linda Martín Alcoff
  - Philosophy
  - Hunter College & CUNY Grad Center
- Charles W. Mills
  - Philosophy
- Dina Siddiqi
  - Liberal Studies
  - New York University
- Shatema Threadcraft
  - Government
  - Dartmouth College
- Susan Brison
  - Philosophy
  - Elon University
- Alison Jaggar
  - Philosophy
  - University of Colorado Boulder
- Kate Manne
  - Philosophy
  - Cornell University
- Danielle McGuire
  - Independent Historian
- Alyson Jaggar
  - Philosophy
  - University of Colorado Boulder
- Sarah Clark Miller
  - Philosophy
  - Penn State University
- Andrea Press
  - Media Studies & Sociology
  - University of Virginia
- Rupal Oza
  - Women & Gender Studies
  - Hunter College & CUNY Grad Center
- Miranda Fricker
  - Philosophy
  - CUNY Grad Center
- Mishuana Goeman
  - Gender Studies & American Indian Studies
  - UCLA
- Suzanne Goldberg
  - Columbia Law School
- Kim Hall
  - Philosophy
  - Appalachian State University
- Lucy Burns
  - Political Science
  - Queens College & CUNY Grad Center
- Karyn Freedman
  - Philosophy
  - University of Guelph
- Miranda Fricker
  - Philosophy
  - CUNY Grad Center
- Sarah Clark Miller
  - Philosophy
  - Penn State University
- Andrea Press
  - Media Studies & Sociology
  - University of Virginia
- Dina Siddiqi
  - Liberal Studies
  - New York University
- Shatema Threadcraft
  - Government
  - Dartmouth College

Conference Organizers

Linda Martín Alcoff
Charles W. Mills

Dates and Locations

- Oct. 5 | Roosevelt House | 47-49 East 65th St. | 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
- Oct. 6 | Skylight Room (9100) | CUNY Graduate Center | 365 Fifth Ave. | 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.